Seasonal Youth Worker Position – Summer 2024
3 Vacancies (9-week positions, 30 hours per week)

Emily Murphy Non-Profit Housing Corporation (EM) is a Rent-Geared-to-Income (RGI), social housing provider, with 38 stacked town homes exclusively for young single parents and their dependants. EM currently houses 37 single parents and 56 children. We are also considered a supportive housing community, offering an array of social supports including but not limited to: programs for children and youth, respite care, collective kitchens, craft nights, referrals, crisis intervention, short-term counselling and various other community development initiatives.

Overview of Seasonal Youth Worker responsibilities:

- Develop and implement programs, activities and outings for children and youth, ages 2-14 years and their families. Both recreational and goal oriented, these programs will heavily focus on community building, anti-bullying, and healthy/active lifestyles.
- Build professional and trusting relationships with members of the community, and engage in community outreach initiatives.
- Participate with community members in seasonal activities/ initiatives.
- Respond to crises effectively and implement behaviour management and conflict resolution strategies to foster a positive community environment.

Job Qualifications:

- Where possible, post-secondary education should reflect the nature of work at EM (i.e. Child and Youth Care (CYC), Social Service Worker (SSW), Early Childhood Education (ECE)).
- Canadian citizen, permanent resident or refugee, and be legally entitled to work in Canada
- Applicants must also provide a valid Criminal Reference Check, specifically for working with the vulnerable sector
- Valid driver's licence and access to a vehicle is highly preferable
- First Aid and CPR level C certificate
- Schedule: ONE position from June 10th - August 9th, 2024 and TWO positions from June 24th – August 23rd, 2024
- Must be available Monday – Friday

Hourly rate: $17.50 per hour
