Summary

The Alternate Neighbourhood Crisis Response (ANCHOR) Team is an innovative pilot project that will provide a community-based, non-police response and follow-up for individuals experiencing crises in the Centretown and Somerset West catchment areas. The project is a collaborative initiative between Centretown and Somerset West Community Health Centres, Community Navigation of Eastern Ontario (CNEO)/ 211, the City of Ottawa, the Ottawa Guiding Council on Mental Health and Addictions, and other community stakeholders. The project began offering services August 15, 2024.

Reporting to the ANCHOR Manager, the Program Team Leads are responsible for the on-the-ground, day-to-day operations of the ANCHOR program/teams. Casual Team Leads will provide replacement for the Full Time Team Leads in the event of planned and short notice absences.

The ANCHOR pilot brings staff from two community health centres together as one team. The Team Leads work with leadership from both centres to ensure integration and provide coordinated, seamless service delivery. They are responsible for supervising crisis response workers at CCHC and SWCHC’s main offices and at off-site locations, including staff working shifts across this 24-hours-a-day, 7-days-a-week operation.

The Program Team Leads are responsible for supporting functioning of CCHC and SWCHC’s mobile crisis response for ANCHOR using advanced expertise in harm reduction and trauma-informed care. The Program Team Leads provide hands-on support by coordinating and monitoring team activities, providing coaching and mentorship to team members, and leading best practices in client care planning, practice support and debriefing for complex cases. The Program Team Leads work in collaboration with staff from within CCHC, SWCHC and community partners to ensure a high standard of care for individuals accessing support through ANCHOR.
