About OCISO

OCISO supports immigrants through the journey of making Canada their home by providing creative and responsive programs that are culturally and linguistically appropriate, by building community through mutual respect and partnerships, and by fostering healthy and inclusive spaces for open dialogue and healing.

Position Summary:

Provide in-person English language training to adult newcomers to Canada in accordance with guidelines set by the funder and program manager.

Language Instructions for Newcomers to Canada (LINC) is a national program funded by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. This program actively employs teachers during the normal school year. Teachers are provided with ROEs to enable them to apply for EI benefits for March and summer breaks.

Main Responsibilities:

- Plan and present lessons in accordance with LINC Curriculum Guidelines and adult learner needs
- Maintain/prepare attendance logs, journal of activities, student evaluations and monthly reports
- Identify resources and technology appropriate to support the English language training at the relevant level

- Be able to design module and lesson plans that are level appropriate, creative, innovative and teach language development while also teaching how to integrate into Canadian culture
- Conduct initial and ongoing assessment of learners in accordance with Portfolio Based Language Assessment
- Accommodate special learning needs faced by equity groups and those from diverse cultures
- Provide input to colleagues / manager regarding policies, resource requirements and other matters affecting programming

Qualifications:

- Undergraduate degree preferably in the areas of Linguistics, Education or the Humanities
- TESL Ontario accreditation (OCELT) in good standing
- Familiarity with LINC curriculum guidelines, Canadian Language Benchmarks, portfolio based language assessment
- Experience in teaching ESL to adults with settlement needs/goals
- Experience in curriculum development
- Highly developed interpersonal skills: positive, enthusiastic, collaborative, and solution-focused
- Demonstrated ability to work in a multi-cultural team environment and open to all perspectives
- Familiarity with services provided by OCISO
- Understanding of immigrant/settlement issues for which lived experience is a definite asset
- Ability and willingness to support and coordinate the contributions of volunteers, researchers and practicum students
- Proficiency with computer applications including the MS Office Suite, Internet Search Engines, Database Programs

Starting Wage: $36.37 per hour, plus 4% vacation pay. (Note: structured unpaid breaks include year-end, March and summer months).

Application Deadline: September 22nd 2021 – Wednesday until 5:00 PM.

Application Process: Please rename your cover letter and resume with your "First name_position title" (e.g., Chandan_HR Administrator) before applying and send to Chandan Rathaur, HR Administrator: hr@ociso.org

We encourage applications from qualified people of all backgrounds, including women, members of visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, and persons with disabilities.

OCISO is committed to accessibility in employment and to ensuring equal access to employment opportunities for candidates, including persons with disabilities. In compliance with AODA, OCISO will endeavor to provide accommodation to persons with disabilities in the recruitment process upon request. If you are selected for an interview and you require accommodation due to a disability during the recruitment process, please notify the HR Administrator upon scheduling your interview.

Thank you for your interest in joining OCISO. We appreciate all applications. Due to the volume of applicants, we are only able to contact those selected for further consideration.
