EDUCATION

Are you an employer in Ottawa or a surrounding region?

Looking for strategies to support employee well-being and improve retention?

Join the Ontario Caregiver Organization for a FREE information and networking session on Tuesday, March 5th, 2024, from 3-5 p.m. in Ottawa.

*Registration Required

Caregivers are ordinary people who provide physical and emotional support to a family member, partner, friend, or neighbour. There are 4 million caregivers across Ontario, 2.5 million are employed.

Identifying, engaging, and supporting caregiving employees is an opportunity to develop inclusive management strategies that can help improve employee wellness and enhance your retention practices.

At this free session provided by the Ontario Caregiver Organization, you will:

- Connect with other employers across your region
- Learn more about Ontario's caregivers and the impact of caregiving within our workforce
- Identify your needs within management, leadership, or human resource roles
- Explore the best strategies for supporting caregiving employees
- Gain access to resources that are focused on supporting working caregivers
- Review support options for you and your colleagues

Please register here - spaces are limited.

This is an in-person event hosted at the Nepean Sailing Club. Free parking. Refreshments will be provided.

This session will be delivered in English, a bilingual OCO staff member will be co-facilitating to support French speaking participants.
